From the Principals Desk...

Kia ora Whanau,
I can't believe we are nearly at the end of week 5! That brings my time as Acting Principal to a close as I hand the reins over to Matt Moorby next week. I have really enjoyed my time leading SJB it has been a fantastic opportunity and a pleasure to do it in such an awesome school. Thank you for your support during this time.

We look forward to welcoming you at our three way conferences this evening. We have been enjoying celebrating your amazing children during these conferences.

Kind regards, Cat Allen

Welcome: I would like to welcome Neve King to Room Kawakawa, Neve joins her big bister Ella at school.

Catholic Schools Day: On Tuesday 28th May we celebrated Catholic Schools Day. The staff, Proprietors Reps on the BOT and Father Simon had a lovely breakfast together to celebrate at the Federal Store. We then came together as a school in the church and had a prayer service (we had planned to have some Jump Jam fun and a drone photo thanks to Jayden Baker but the wet weather changed our plans - hopefully we will be able to do this another day).

Book Fair: Koromiko and Kawakawa celebrated the book fair this week by having a dress up day on Tuesday! They looked gorgeous and had heaps of fun.

The book fair is open for the rest of this week in the junior/middle breakout space. Come and check it out! We are looking forward to topping up our school library as some of the proceeds from the Book Fair come back to the school.

Building Update: Part of 21 Learning Street will be closed off for the next two weeks while renovations continue. Access to classrooms will be through the breakout space or the senior end of 21 Learning Street.

James Russell Author Visit: Today we hosted James Russell. James Russell is a bestselling children's writer. The author of the self-published Dragon Brothers trilogy: The Dragon Hunters (2012), The Dragon Tamers (2013) and The Dragon Riders (2014), Russell has also published three Dragon Defenders books. An innovator and augmented reality (AR) enthusiastic, Russell's publications use AR technology to bring three-dimensional 'magic' to his books. He lives in Auckland with his family.

Catholic Schools Day: On Tuesday 28th May we celebrated Catholic Schools Day. The staff, Proprietors Reps on the BOT and Father Simon had a lovely breakfast together to celebrate at the Federal Store. We then came together as a school in the church and had a prayer service (we had planned to have some Jump Jam fun and a drone photo thanks to Jayden Baker but the wet weather changed our plans - hopefully we will be able to do this another day).

St John Bosco School

This poem was written in celebration of Catholic Schools Day 2019
By Kowhai and Pohutukawa

St John Bosco is a loving school,
The values and learning are so cool.
We are Catholic, we follow Jesus Christ,
Aroha and forgiveness, Jesus made a sacrifice
Caring, kind and loyal to each other,
Patient and peaceful to one another.

E te whānau whakapono, tēnā koutou, tēnā koutou katoa.

Catholic schools day is about who we are as a community of faith.

Today we celebrate the gifts of life, baptism, faith and whānau. We thank God for everyone who has helped us along our own journey of faith: other students, teachers, parents and caregivers, priests and parishioners.

We grow too in our understanding that faith is nurtured with friends, in families, on marae, and in our parish communities. Catholic life is a team event; we all have a place and role on the playing field of faith.

Enjoy the day. Please keep our diocesan family in your prayers on this special day (28 May).

Kia tau ngā manaakitanga o te Ariki ki runga a koutou. May the Lord's blessings be bestowed upon you all.

+ Charles
